

Gallipoli, Where Allies Fought and Died in Vain

THE BRITISH STEAMSHIP RIVER CLYDE, WHICH WAS RUN ASHORE LOADED WITH TROOPS AT SEDDUL-BAHR. SHE WAS CALLED THE "WOODEN HORSE" IN FACETIOUS ILLUSION TO THE SIEGE OF TROY.

(© Central News.)

THE CRESCENT-SHAPED BEACH AT GALLIPOLI, WHICH WAS THE LANDING PLACE AND GRAVE AS WELL OF THOUSANDS OF AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND TROOPS IN THAT DISASTROUS CAMPAIGN.

(© Central News.)